CORRESPONDENCE.

THE LEKIN SQUEEZE.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."
SIR,— "Tai Ho," who through the medium of your columns last night, replied to my letter of the 2nd inst., evidently thinks he has "hit the nail on the head" this time with regard to the right, real or imaginary, of His Excellency of Canton to play ducks and drakes with the Anglo-Chinese Convention. "Tai Ho," whoever he may be, requests me to be logical and makes other wholly irrelevant remarks about boots and wrong feet, balls of opium scattered about sampans, etc., but he displays most object ignorance of logic, either elementary or abstruse. To put it plainly he asserts, in as many words, that because there is a loop-hole in one part of the Convention, therefore the Viceroy is free to break through the stipulations of the instrument generally. It would be interesting to know whether anyone ever dropped upon a more unique instance of the argument ad absurdum, than this profound deduction of "Tai Ho." Besides your correspondent is not inspired by the Viceroy himself, is reflecting the lines of reason, the assumed raison d'être, of His Excellency's chief secretary. It is ridiculous for "Tai Ho" to either attempt logical denial of my contentions or to try to grill the public with his unsubstantiated affirmations. Time, the great revealer of all things temporal, will alone furnish the general public with undeniable facts respecting an affair which seems inexplicable from men of the "Tai Ho" calibre. My advice to Tai Ho is to stick to common sense and await the evolution of events. Asking the favour of space for this letter.
Yours truly,
JOHN BULL.

CANTON.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The visit of Col. Denby, U.S. Minister, and Mr. Chesire, Interpreter and Assistant Secretary of the U.S. Legation, during the past week in Canton, was the occasion of a round of social festivities and pleasant hospitalities, commenced on Tuesday evening at the British Consulate and continued at the hospitable mansion of Messrs. Deacon & Co. on Wednesday evening; at the Yamen of H.E. the Viceroy on Thursday; at the U.S. Consulate on Thursday evening; on the U.S. Consulate on Friday; at the German Consulate on Friday evening; and closing at the U.S. Consulate on Saturday; when the result of the interviews between H.E. the Viceroy and H.E. the U.S. Minister was announced to the assembled American missionaries of various denominations in regard to their long pending claims for losses sustained by missions and hospitals, at Ng Chow in 1882; at Shiehong, Chik Hom and Tseng Yuen, in 1884; and Young Kong and Kwai Ping in 1886, all of which claims had been adjusted, settled, and paid on an equitable basis, the details of which elicited expressions of entire satisfaction on the part of claimants present.

THE GREAT FIRE AT KIRIN.

(FROM OUR NEWCHWANG CORRESPONDENT.)
2nd June.
The fire at Kirin was a very serious affair. An eye witness writes: "I sent you a telegram a few days ago about the great fire which raged here on 13th May, and I had waste a fifth of the city. Signals were made about 2 p.m., and as usual the Governor-General left his yamen for the scene of the fire, and to conduct operations in the work of extinguishing, etc. The soldiers, carried some ten engines, but no one seemed to anticipate anything very serious. There have been a good many small fires lately, and I had got used to the alarms, so that as this one was reported to have commenced at a bakery and not thought to be of much consequence, I paid small attention to it. Unfortunately a great tempest arose, and the flames spread to a large store of timber which could not be saved. At half-past two I went to the inn about a 1/2 off, and climbing to the roof of a house saw only two houses burning, but within a short while the fire was communicated to nearly all the buildings within a 1/2 of the original breaking out, and I saw that the Governor-General's yamen would soon be in danger. So I proceeded as quickly as possible to save all the property that could be got at, and having secured a large junk at the river bank, I had all my things carried to it from my house, before the latter caught fire. It necessitated all one's authority, with words and with whip, for at first the servants would not believe there was any danger, and afterwards, when there was no mistake about it, they lost their heads and behaved like mad people. The yamen station is a large square with streets on all sides. All the houses caught fire, and some 60,000 cartridges for Martini Henry rifles exploded. The noise was like half a dozen regiments firing volleys in quick time. The servants had to be dragged into the house to carry out the packages. They had no sense left. The cook prayed that I might fly. He was an ah-ah object. He wore two helmets and a riding cap on the top of his own, went more than once to the junk with them and small pieces of furniture, taking them backward and forward, and finally lost them together. When the window window cracked from the heat and the roof caught fire I concluded it prudent to retire. Thousands of people fled to the river with such few things as they could pick up in a hurry. Large timber rafts crowded with people also were burnt, and the only safety was in the water itself. My junk crossed to the other side of the river, where we remained during the night. By 8 p.m. the configuration extended for more than a mile along the bank. All the large stores of timber were consumed, the flames shooting up hundreds of feet in sight never to be forgotten. Fortunately the wind died down, and the fire was nearly extinguished by the night, but it smouldered in places for days, and only gave way entirely to a heavy downpour of rain which occurred yesterday (20th May). The sufferers are chiefly well-to-do people, and the loss is supposed to be from 2 to 3 millions of taels. Some ten lives were sacrificed. The exact estimate of the loss is difficult to get at, but some 2,600 families were made homeless, and the misery is more easily imagined than described.—N. C. Daily News.

A devil ation has been suggested to us for Niwa tori, the common or garden fowl. We know it all, but do not like to introduce it into the columns. The gentleman who made the suggestion, however, being an embryo of gué, we p blish his deviation in the hope that he may be encouraged to do better next time. Truly, Niwa tori=Numerical for birds, tori=A bird; niwa tori=Two birds. That's all! Ex. Niwa tori Korosu=To kill two birds (with one stone). Niwa tori Korosu=Koroshi de Koroshi de Korosu=To earn a living by killing two birds and crows with one stone and a sore mustard.
A lady sinologue says that Shimoro that innitai is the proper rendering of "Give the dog a comfortable berth." We don't deny it. We can here to teach the Japanese their language, and hence grateful for any little assistance of this kind from other sinologues, especially ladies.

The Names of the seasons in Japanese are an other instance of teopy, tuivness. Natsu is derived from "Nasty" ("Navy" season) the t and s having been transposed and the word subsequently mispronounced of course. Haru and aki are only our English friends "harrow" and "achy" in a Japanese dress, and mean the "harrow"ing season and the "achy" season respectively. Fuyu (winter) is an onomatopoeia, the Japanese thinking, mistakenly that "Phoo-yoo" was the way foreigners expressed the sensation of intense cold.
Yare! "yare!" "Brace up!"—Japan Herald.

SCOTT'S Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites is more reliable as an agent in the cure of Consumption, Branchitis and General Debility, than any other remedy known to medical science.
